

Work Incentive Planning is for People Who:

- Are considering work
- Want to increase their income
- Want to understand how work affects Social Security disability and other benefits.

UWIPS Vision:

Envisioning a community in which more individuals receiving Social Security disability benefits will choose to work based on their understanding of the impact employment has on their benefits.

Utah Work Incentive Planning Services is administered by the Utah State Office of Rehabilitation.

UWIPS is funded by the Utah State Office of Rehabilitation, the Social Security Administration's Work Incentive Planning and Assistance Program, and the Department of Workforce Services.

1595 West 500 South
Salt Lake City, UT 84104

Phone: 801-887-9530
Toll-Free: 866-454-8397
Fax: 801-887-9389

E-mail: usoruwips@utah.gov
Website: uwips.usor.utah.gov

The contents of this publication are the sole responsibility of the authors and do not represent the official views of the Social Security Administration.

Utah

Work Incentive Planning Services (UWIPS)

Building a better understanding about Social Security disability benefits and work.

Do you want to know how working will impact your Social Security disability and other benefits?

UWIPS can help!

WHAT BENEFITS ARE EXPLAINED?

- Social Security Disability (SSI/SSDI)
- Health Care (Medicaid, Medicare, etc.)
- Housing
- Food Stamps
- Other

WHAT DOES WORK INCENTIVE PLANNING PROVIDE?

- Information about how working affects benefits
- A personalized written analysis including:
 - Current and possible benefits
 - Work incentives
 - Problem areas and solutions
 - Information about other helpful programs
 - Answers to questions

WHY IS WORK INCENTIVE PLANNING IMPORTANT?

- Helps with making informed decisions about work
- Increases knowledge
- Helps identify or prevent problems with benefits
- Dispels myths about benefits

WHO DOES THIS HELP?

People who are currently receiving Social Security disability benefits (SSI/SSDI) who would like information on how work may affect their benefits.

WHY REFER?

To help people understand how working affects their Social Security and other benefits, as well as identify what work incentives they might be able to use.

WHEN TO REFER?

When a person is thinking about going to work or working more hours in their current job.

WHO CAN REFER?

Anyone who knows a person receiving Social Security disability benefits (SSI/SSDI) who is considering work. People can also refer themselves.

HOW TO REFER?

Complete a referral form and send it in to the program. You can get a referral form by calling (801) 887-9530 or by going to www.uwips.usor.utah.gov.

Utah Work Incentive Planning Services

Serving people throughout the State of Utah at no cost to the individual.

Phone: 801-887-9530

Toll-Free: 866-454-8397

Fax: 801-887-9389

E-mail: usoruwips@utah.gov

Website: uwips.usor.utah.gov

If you have questions about your legal rights under the work incentives, you can call the Disability Law Center at 1-800-662-9080 and ask for the PABSS program.